AUGUST 2019
OUR 45TH YEAR

Vol. XLV No. 8

BIG SIR'S MESSAGE

Well men of Sir the end of the month is fast approaching and August is almost upon us. For me it has always seemed that as we got past the 4th of July holiday the rest of the summer just rushed on by. Before I knew it, September had arrived and summer was over. The point being if you haven't already had your summer fun, better hurry up and get to it before it is too late. Have fun whatever you do. How about that great speaker we had at our July luncheon! Tony Lazzarini really brought to life the incredible experience of the helicopter gunner during the Vietnam war. He shared with us the danger, the brotherhood, the bravery and competence of our military and the sadness that accompanied so much of that conflict. Not only was the subject matter fascinating but Tony himself was a wonderful speaker with an engaging manner.

After his talk I observed several of our members talking with Tony about their own time in Viet Nam. They clearly related to his experiences in that war and appreciated his presentation. All my respect and thanks to these men and all the men and women who have served our country in uniform and especially to those who have braved combat.

Kudos to our outstanding Little Sir Doug Twitchell for bringing to our club another terrific Speaker. He is doing a great job this year.

Lastly, I want to bring to your attention that at our August luncheon we will be electing our officers for next year. A list of candidates should appear in this edition of Tamaltalk. Take a look and check out those candidates, they will be our club's leaders in 2020.

See you all next month, take care,

Jim Norton
Big Sir – Branch 47

North Korea: One HELL of a place!
By Michael Kelly

Bob Canepa, our June 25 luncheon speaker and Mill Valley Market scion, recently visited North Korea, and he shared with us his impressions of that country along with a series of photos that he somehow managed to take and then smuggle out of the country without being imprisoned and tortured. His presentation was officially billed as “North Korea: The Hermit Kingdom” [by “Bob Canepa aka The Teflon Tourist,” a name appropriately bestowed on him, I assume, by his fellow travelers who were in awe of his ability to capture shots that were off limits and forbidden by the repressive totalitarian North Korean government which prefers to be called the “Democratic Peoples’ Republic.” As Bob began his talk, he suggested that we all conjure up our own visions of hell and then multiply them by one hundred. “That would be North Korea,” said Bob.

I knew at this point that I wouldn’t have to take any notes since it’s nearly impossible to watch or read the news without encountering stories about and references to North Korea and its “supreme leader.” The world is well aware of the nature of the brutal “Un” family dynasty’s policies, politics, moral decay, deceptions, misdeeds, paranoia, cruelties, and delusions, so I’ll try to resist ranting here. Bob touched on much of this in his presentation. Pictures of well-paved highways with no cars on them (taken by Bob while standing on the center line!) were eerie but not surprising.

Pictures of huge cement cubes stacked high along the highways to be pulled down on to the highways in the event of an invasion by the United States and its allies were weird but not surprising.

Monumental supersized statues of the “Un” family “supreme” leaders in inspiring heroic poses, also not unexpected, are plentiful, along with massive monuments (always a couple inches or feet higher than anything comparable in the US) commemorating the hermit kingdom’s many cultural, scientific, historical, economic, and military achievements and victories in the face of western hostility and aggression. Bob showed us quite a few pictures of propaganda posters and murals, commenting that “they were everywhere.”

Also “everywhere,” said Bob, there were uniformed military personnel, and he managed to sneak quite a few of them into his photos. One that sticks in my memory was of a five year old boy in full military dress uniform smiling and looking happy as a victim of brainwashing can be.

But something that isn’t “everywhere” is the internet, which shouldn’t surprise us. Only the highest ranking government officials and big wigs in this democracy” have access to that.

North Korea: One HELL of a place!

There was one picture of Bob picnicking with a small group of North Korean people who, Bob suspected, had never before seen an actual American person. Everyone in the group was smiling and having a good time until, if I remember correctly, the tour’s minders caught them at it, broke up the party and then fell to squabbling about who would get the blame for allowing something this flagrant to happen. (If they hadn’t lost their focus and done their jobs properly, they would have remembered to confiscate Bob’s camera!).

Other observations by Bob: “obesity isn’t a problem in North Korea, and you don’t see many fat people because there isn’t enough food to go around.” Same for electricity. Satellite photos of North Korea reveal that it is often in a state of blackout at night while South Korea glows brightly. And on the “supreme” leader’s family life, Bob had this to say: “It’s a definite plus not to be related to Kim Jong Un because most of his relatives have a funny habit of turning up dead.”

On another note, Bob had to concede that the North Koreans are really good at staging big impressive spectacles, perfectly arranged and orchestrated. His group was treated to one of these which took place in a huge stadium with over 100,000 participants waving flags and banners and manipulating colored squares precisely and with amazing timing and coordination. He admits to being really impressed. We saw the evidence: a picture which didn’t need to be teflonized: happy, patriotic, worshipful adorers of the “supreme leader” showing their gratitude for not being tortured or imprisoned. Or worse.

Bob didn’t comment on the scary things—the nuclear weapons and missiles we read and hear about almost every day in the great news cycle, but it’s hard not to think of them when we think of North Korea. been tempted to point his camera in that direction, and had he been given the opportunity.

Many thanks, Bob, for your comments and for the photos showing us what’s behind the curtain. North Korea really is one HELL of a place!

DOUG TWITCHELL, LITTLE SIR

JOKE OF THE MONTH

There was an elderly couple who in their old age noticed that they were getting a lot more forgetful, so they decided to go to the doctor. The doctor told them that they should start writing things down so they don't forget. They went home and the old lady told her husband to get her a bowl of ice cream. "You might want to write it down," she said. The husband said, "No, I can remember that you want a bowl of ice cream." She then told her husband she wanted a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream. "Write it down," she told him, and again he said, "No, no, I can remember: you want a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream." Then the old lady said she wants a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top. "Write it down," she told her husband and again he said, "No, I got it. You want a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top."

So he goes to get the ice cream and spends an unusually long time in the kitchen, over 30 minutes. He comes out to his wife and hands her a plate of eggs and bacon.

The old wife stares at the plate for a moment, then looks at her husband and asks, "Where's the toast?"

TENNIS, ANYONE?

With all the holidays, vacation & traveling in July, we still managed a foursome each Wednesday! July 10th, Norm Jensen & Paul Schofield played exceptionally well!

Play is at McInnis Park every Wednesday @ 9:30 AM.

Br 47 Outings include:

1. Music Concert Series @ Pacheco Plaza in Novato on 3rd Friday from 6-9pm on July 19 Zydeco Flames & Aug 16 Top shelf Classics. The concert is free in the plaza, but bringing your chairs is advisable.

2. Pt. Richmond Music's Free Concert Series from 5:30 – 8:00 pm. This annual summer-long series begins Friday June 14. Local restaurants offer a wide array of cuisines, and concert-goers can pair fine food with beverages from PRM's no host bar, with proceeds directly supporting the music series. Festival-style seating is available with a limited number of chairs provided, and concert-goers are encouraged to bring their own festival/lawn chairs. PRM, an all-volunteer non-profit organization, produces the series in support of its mission to build community through the unifying language of music. Please visit www.pointrichmondmusic.org for more information. The next concerts are: Fri. Aug 9 @ 5:30 – 6:30 pm Maurice Taul & 77 El Deora (while rooted in country music, is seen from an urban-western perspective) AND @ 6:45 – 8:00 pm Pellejo Seco (draws on Afro-Cuban folklore and the latest Havana dance music.) Fr Sept. 13 @ 5:30 – 6:30 pm Matt Jaffee (Matt Jaffee is a singer/songwriter from San Francisco. Cutting his teeth on open mics around the Bay Area,) AND @ Extra Large (splices together funk, Latin, reggae, and California rock)

3. A unique opportunity suggested by Bob Gonzalez. Enjoy Vintage Music and tour the lovely Victorian Home of Richard Reutlinger on 824 Grove St., SF 94117 (between Fillmore & Webster). Concerts are on specified Sat & Sun afternoons @ 2 pm (doors open @ 1:30 pm, so you can tour the old Victorian before the concert.). Send a check payable to Richard Reutlinger to the address above to reserve seats. $25 per person. Free champagne and snacks are served during intermission as you enjoy Richard's fine collection of mechanical musical instruments. Be sure to mention which day you wish to attend and buy your tickets early to guarantee seating. The next scheduled concerts are: Aug 24 & 25 Brian Holland and Danny Coats; Sept 28 & 29 Frederick Hodges and Janet Klein.

4. Cinnabar Theater: 3333 Petaluma Blvd. North, Petaluma
* Note: Seating is now reserved in advance, but the Theater seating has been refurbished. Aug 30 - Sep. 22 "LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS" has devoured the hearts of theatergoers for over 30 years. Call to Order: Meeting was called to order by Big SIR, Jim Norton at 10:30

Minutes of May Meeting: Minutes from the May meeting were reviewed and approved with no changes.

Treasurer's Report: Bill Stewart reviewed our accounts. Payments were made for the purchase of AV Equipment of $1,129. Checking balance is $10,721 which reflects this payment.

Little SIR Report: Doug Twitchell reported no significant changes from last month. Speakers are scheduled through the remainder of 2019. He will continue to book speakers into 2020 if possible.

Big SIR Report:

SIR State Survey: Jim Norton noted that members may have received a survey from the State. Members are encouraged to respond to the survey. Jim will remind members at tomorrow's luncheon.

Passing of Neil Burton: Jim noted the passing of our member Neil Burton. Neil was a member of our branch since May 2006.

Member resignation: A letter was received from a member requesting to resign. Jim Norton will call this member to get more background.

Old Business:

New Member Requirements: Jim Norton went over the suggested requirements for new members during the first 6 months of membership. This should will help them become more connected with the branch members. Suggested activities include: attend a board meeting, serve as a greeter at the luncheons, work at the attendance desk. Doug Twitchell brought up the new member letter that was developed in 2018. It was suggested that the Membership Chairman incorporate this into the new member packet. The new member sponsor should work closely with the new member to be sure become involved in activities they are interested in. Rick Colburn reviewed the New Member Packet that will be effective with our new members beginning immediately. Rick noted the importance of the sponsor to bringing a new member into the branch. He suggested a sponsor may want to take a new member to lunch for personal get acquainted session.

WEB Page: Jake Solomon recommended that WEB Committee become a permanent committee of the branch. The actual makeup this committee was discussed. Bob Gonzalez noted that we could have a WEB professional provide some WEB design services. Will Kaefer noted that it is critical that we be able to easily modify and update the WEB page contents. The best software to use is also in question. Should this be Word Press or some other product. It was suggested that our members be polled to see who might have the interests and skills needed to support our web page.

New Business:

Activities Review: Rick Colburn updated the activity list from our members. This lists a count of members expressing interest in specific activities. There is considerable interests in activities that are not currently sponsored by our branch. No decision was made how to proceed with this as it is complex issue with many moving parts. This will serve as a basis for discussion in our future meetings.

New Members: Two new member applications were approved.

State SIR Meeting at Thunder Valley Resort Hotel, Lincoln, CA: Jim Norton will send in our reservation for the Big SIR and Little SIR to attend the meeting on Tuesday, August 20.

Adjourn: Meeting was adjourned at 11:57
